Secures Divorce.
A decree of divorce was granted Nov. 19, to Mrs. Marie C. Harlan, from her husband, M. R. Harlan, a well known mining man of this district. This was ascertained yesterday contrary to a report which has been circulated locally, to the effect that a decree had been denied. The court in granting the decree of absolute divorce also gave Mrs. Harlan the right to adopt her maiden name of Marie Cottrell. Miss Cottrell will be remembered locally as the authoress of "The Land of Extremes," a novel dealing with Arizona life of today which has had a large sale in this city and county. She is at present a resident of Lowell.

Dies in San Antonio.
Charles A. Flisk of Tombstone yesterday received telegraphic advices from San Antonio, Texas, to the effect that his youngest brother, Clinton B. Flisk, Jr., had passed away in that city. The telegram did not state the cause of death, but it is known that he went to the Lone Star state for his health from New York, where he is a prominent citizen. The body will be shipped to Coldwater, Michigan, for interment.

Mr. Dowling promises a private hearing to all who are opposed to laughing in public.

Pollard in Charge.
Until a successor can be named to take charge of the local Y. M. C. A. work in the place of C. E. Buchner, resigned, Territorial secretary D. W. Pollard will have charge of the local association. A new secretary will be appointed within the next two weeks, it is expected.

Play Postponed.
The comedy "The Toastmaster," which was to have been given at the Orpheum theater Friday evening by the senior class of the high school, has been postponed. It will probably not now be given until a month later.

Prof. Murray Ill.
Prof. Murray, of the high school faculty, was laid up yesterday with an attack of illness that prevented him from being present at school.

Who Won the Prizes?
In the drawing and painting exhibit at the territorial fair the Bisbee high and grade schools won quite a number of prizes, most of them first. Since the close of the fair the exhibits have not been returned or a list of the individual winners forwarded, so the scholars are all at sea as to who shall wear the blue ribbons awarded as the prize.

Returned to Douglas.
Dan Williams of Douglas, who has been spending a few days in the city on business returned home yesterday. His case at Tombstone, for the shooting of Patrolman Russell, has been postponed until spring.

Registers 600 Voters.
Police Justice Hogan yesterday passed the 600 mark in the registration for the local option election in January. Justices High and Burdick and City Clerk Gage are adding a few names to their respective lists each day. Over 1,000 of the 1,750 voters are now upon the rolls.
